

On Thursday, September 30th, 2010, at an awards luncheon in downtown Chicago, Land & Lakes Company was inducted into the Recycling Hall of Fame for its new Food Waste Recycling initiative by Keep Chicago Beautiful, an affiliate of Keep America Beautiful, Inc. Keep Chicago Beautiful is a nonprofit organization that works to improve the environment through education, public awareness and community involvement. Keep Chicago Beautiful affiliates are dedicated to keeping Chicagoland clean and beautiful through good solid waste management practices including recycling, composting, litter prevention, and neighborhood restoration. Their motto for local businesses is to be "part of the solution, not part of the pollution." Mary Margaret Cowhey, pictured below on the far left, accepted the award on behalf of Land and Lakes Company. Joe Zepeda, Brian Wozniak, and Preston Kendall also represented Land and Lakes at the event held at the Four Seasons Hotel on the Magnificent Mile.

